

In Celebration of All Fired Up!

Westchester Art Workshop presents the following events:

Sounding Ceramic Sculptures and Instruments with Brian Ransom:

Workshop: October 18 and 19, Sat. & Sun., 10:00am-4:00pm

In this hands-on workshop, Brian Ransom will demonstrate many of the throwing, hand-building and assembling techniques he uses in creating his unique sounding ceramic sculptures and musical instruments. Participants will have the opportunity to make and tune their own instruments during this workshop. Mr. Ransom will discuss clay bodies, firing techniques (particularly vapor-firing), and both the formal and informal sculptural processes he utilizes in his sounding ceramics. $150. Ref#A508

All Fired Up! www.allfiredup.info

From October 3 until November 30, more than 50 venues throughout Westchester County will participate in All Fired Up! A Celebration of Clay in Westchester. This consortium project, led by the Westchester Arts Council and a steering committee of eight cultural institutions, will encompass museums, multi-art centers, library and college-based galleries and alternative sites hosting parallel exhibitions of regional, national, and international works of art that explore the breadth and depth of ceramic expression—from folk arts to fine arts, historical to contemporary.

FREE Community Event!

Family Clay Day:

Saturday, November 1, 10:00am-3:00pm

Come visit the Westchester Art Workshop for free demonstrations and to participate in hands-on activities in our ceramics department. There will be activities for the whole family! Get your hands dirty and learn about the art of ceramics.
